AECOM wins corporate governance award from Corporate Secretary magazine

LOS ANGELES (Jan. 14, 2013) — AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for public and private clients in more than 130 countries around the world, announced today that it has been awarded the coveted “Overall Governance, Compliance and Ethics (small to mid-cap)” in Corporate Secretary magazine’s fifth-annual Corporate Governance Awards program.

The Corporate Governance Awards are presented annually to individuals and corporations who have demonstrated excellent work in the field of corporate governance and made outstanding contributions in one or more jurisdictions. Other award winners included American Express – for Best Overall Governance, Compliance & Ethics (large cap) – as well as Allstate and Krispy Kreme.

“We are proud that our people, especially our ethics and compliance team, have enabled AECOM to win this prestigious award,” said AECOM Chairman and Chief Executive Officer John M. Dionisio. “We remain committed to ensuring that AECOM continues to maintain high standards of ethical leadership, compliance practices and corporate social responsibility over the long term. Our commitment to ethical behavior is one that we remain committed to – every day.”
