

AECOM awarded US$20-million contract for Edmonton's Light Rail Transit extension

December 28, 2009 at 7:00 AM EST

LOS ANGELES, Dec 28, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for government and commercial clients around the world, announced today that it was awarded a US$20-million contract in Canada to provide program management services for the City of Edmonton's Light Rail Transit (LRT) extension from downtown Edmonton to the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology.

The project's total construction value is approximately US$708 million.

The company will provide program management and design services for Phase 1 of the 2-mile extension that will branch off the existing underground LRT with approximately 2,300 feet of tunnel section with the remaining 1.5 miles on the surface. Three new LRT stations will be built at major health care and educational institution destination points.

"We are pleased to have the opportunity to work on this important infrastructure project," said John M. Dionisio, AECOM president and chief executive officer. "We are proud to support the city's efforts to improve accessibility for its citizens and visitors."
