

AECOM wins U.S. Air Force Worldwide Environmental Restoration and Construction IDIQ contract valued up to US$3 billion

June 8, 2010 at 7:02 AM EDT

LOS ANGELES, Jun 08, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) --AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for government and commercial clients around the world, announced today that it is one of approximately 40 companies awarded an Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract by the U.S. Air Force Center for Engineering and the Environment.

AECOM will primarily provide environmental restoration and remediation services under the five-year, performance-based Worldwide Environmental Restoration and Construction '09 (WERC09) Program contract, which has a maximum value of up to US$3 billion.

The company recently won two WERC09 task orders. The first includes the decommissioning and removal of groundwater-extraction and soil-vapor-extraction treatment systems at the March Air Reserve Base in California. Under the second task order, AECOM will be responsible for the remediation of surface soils at Wisconsin's General Mitchell Air Reserve Station.
