

AECOM awarded master services agreement in Alberta, Canada, worth approximately US$10 million annually

September 28, 2010

Agreement has three-year term with option to extend an additional two years

LOS ANGELES, Sep 28, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) --

AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for government and commercial clients around the world, announced today that it was awarded a master services agreement worth approximately US$10 million annually for the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo (RMWB) in Alberta, Canada.

Under the agreement, which has a three-year term with the option to extend an additional two years, AECOM will provide consulting engineering services for 80 percent of the RMWB's capital projects and infrastructure revitalization plan.

Projects will involve resources from a number of AECOM business lines and include work such as water, wastewater, transportation, buildings and special facilities. Projects covered by this capital program are expected to have a total construction value of approximately US$750 million over three years.

"We are happy to support this important infrastructure program that is vital to the area's continued growth and quality of life," said John M. Dionisio, AECOM president and chief executive officer.
