

AECOM awarded professional services contract by Scottish Water

October 26, 2010 at 7:02 AM EDT

LOS ANGELES, Oct 26, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for government and commercial clients around the world, announced today that it has been awarded a contract to provide strategic support services for Scottish Water to help support its US$4-billion capital works program during the next five years.

The program will address Scottish Water's capital maintenance requirements. The work is intended to help meet Scottish Water's statutory obligations in an efficient and sustainable manner while reducing the company's carbon footprint, meeting customer needs and improving the quality of Scotland's rivers and coastal waters.

AECOM will provide a range of professional services across six major Scottish Water programs. Services will include asset performance and business planning, treatment design, water network design, wastewater network design, water modeling, and dams and reservoirs.

"AECOM is proud to continue its long-standing relationship with Scottish Water," said John M. Dionisio, AECOM president and chief executive officer. "We welcome the opportunity to support this valuable client's initiative to enhance its service to its approximately 5 million customers."
