

AECOM awarded third consecutive nationwide contract with the U.S. Postal Service

April 14, 2021

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 14, 2021-- AECOM (NYSE: ACM), the world's premier infrastructure consulting firm, today announced that it has been awarded an indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity (IDIQ) program management services contract with the U.S. Postal Service (USPS). AECOM will provide program and project management, architectural and engineering design, construction management, and environmental services to improve and maintain the USPS' vast facilities portfolio. The multiple-award contract, with a combined $600-million program ceiling, includes three base years and up to four additional option years.

"For more than thirty years, AECOM has brought together technical leaders across our business to provide the USPS with unparalleled expertise, delivering on our commitment to quality, consistency, and safety," said Lara Poloni, AECOM's president. "We are thrilled to build upon this partnership and leverage our extensive knowledge and history with the USPS to continue to deliver world-class services under this new contract."

AECOM worked at over 2,000 USPS facilities under its previous program management services contract with the USPS. It has also completed a construction management support services contract and various environmental and architectural IDIQ contracts with the USPS, with work encompassing a range of facilities, including post offices, network distribution centers, processing and distribution centers, retail mail facilities, and vehicle maintenance facilities.

"We are proud to support the USPS across all of its service areas with our expansive, established network of experts," said Tom Scerbo, Metro New York executive of AECOM's Design & Consulting Services business. "With our unwavering track record of successful completion, we are ready to continue to deliver USPS projects of all sizes and on a national scale."
