

AECOM Wins US$28.5-Million Contract to Design New Zayed University Campus in Abu Dhabi

January 20, 2009

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 20, 2009--AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for government and commercial clients around the world, today announced that it has been awarded a one-year, US$28.5-million contract to provide design services for Zayed University's new campus in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates (U.A.E.).

The US$700-million development consists of 24 buildings that will provide educational facilities for 6,000 students as well as related faculty and support staff.

"AECOM is proud to be involved in this important project for Zayed University, as it will significantly contribute to the advancement of higher education in the region," said John M. Dionisio, AECOM president and chief executive officer.

AECOM is supplying complete design services for Al Habtoor-Murray and Roberts, which has signed a design-build contract to deliver the new campus development. This development is being overseen by Mubadala Development Company.

Professionals from AECOM's industry-leading educational-facilities-design and design-build practices will be joined by the company's locally based designers on the project. With more than 3,000 local employees serving clients in Abu Dhabi, Dubai and Qatar, AECOM is one of the largest design firms in the Middle East.
