Projects highlight AECOM's continued geographic expansion

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 9, 2009-- AECOM Technology Corporation (NYSE: ACM), a leading provider of professional technical and management support services for government and commercial clients around the world, announced today that it has recently been awarded two passenger rail contracts in India with fees totaling US$50 million.

The two contracts, which cover work on passenger railways serving the cities of Chennai and Kolkata, will leverage AECOM's design, as well as project- and construction-management, services. AECOM will perform the work on both projects as a part of joint ventures.

The US$3-billion Chennai Metro Rail project includes two rail lines spanning approximately 28 miles, and includes 36 stations and a depot. The value of this project to AECOM is expected to be US$30 million. The US$1-billion Kolkata Metro Rail project encompasses work on the Kolkata East-West line covering approximately 11 miles through the city center and 12 stations. The value of this project to AECOM is expected to be US$20 million. Both projects are scheduled for completion in 2015.

"These investments in transportation infrastructure provide AECOM with an opportunity to contribute to India's economic advancement," said John M. Dionisio, AECOM president and chief executive officer. "These projects also highlight AECOM's diversified global footprint and our ability to execute our growth strategy by expanding into new markets."
